<Confucian Analects>

Book VI: Yung Yey Chapter 10

Ran Qiu said, "It is not that I am not pleased with Master's teaching, just that I feel incapable of carrying it out well." Confucius said, "Only a man who feels he is absolutely incapable will fall out along the course. But in your case, you are only self-limiting."

Book VII: Shu R Chapter 21

Confucius said, "In a group of three people, there is always something I can learn from. Choose to follow the strengths of others, use the shortcomings to reflect upon ourselves."
