NG WAH CATHOLIC SECONDARY SCHOOL Senior Penmanship Competition 2016 - 17

Name:

Instructions:

1. Copy the following poem in the space provided.

Write in blue or black pen.

Use cursive writing

A Liking for the Viking

by Celia Warren 🖫

% I've always had a liking for the Viking; His handsome horns; his rough and ready ways; 🖁 His rugged russet hair beneath his helmet In those metal-rattle, battle-happy days.

I've always had a longing for a longboat; 🖔 To fly like a dragon through the sea To peaceful evenings round a real fire. Alive with legend; rich with poetry.

I've always had a yearning for the burning Of brave flames irradiating valour; For the fiery longboat carrying its Chieftain To his final feast in glorious Valhalla.

who where y hi wight
U d d
MV AV A & A A A AV AP AU
100 Ny Ny
(7-8 6 1) & J LV 4+ 9-9
1 4
4-1-1-1-1-0-PQ-R
77444W-X242
1 0

Liking for the Viking by Celia Warren Tire always had a liking for the Viking His havelsome horn; his rough cend ready ways:
by Celia Warren
Thre always had a liking for the Diking
His havelsome horns; his rough cend ready ways.
This encyged russet hair beneath his helmet	0
This quoyed russet hair beneath his helmet Ja those melal-rattle, battle-happy	lc O
I've always had a larging for a larger	ソレ
In ly like a strayon through the sea
Ta jugalful evenings round a real fife.
I've always had a longing for a langle In fly like a drayon through the sea To juaceful evenings round a real fife, Iline with legend; gich with proetry.
Tie sturys had a yenning from the

Caming