My Ideal Family

What do you think an ideal family is? Today, I want to share with you my ideal family.

My ideal family would have three members --- Dad, Mum and me. My parents would treat me nicely. My mother is very considerate and always takes care of me; while my father has a good temper and is approachable. They often take me to different places to play at weekends. When I want any toys, they would buy them for me. If I were the only child, I could enjoy a loving environment without having to compete with my siblings and accompany them everywhere.

Back in real life, my family life is very comfortable. Although my father and mother are very serious, they care about me very much. They are satisfied with me most of the time because they want to teach me to be self-controlled, knowing what wants are and what are not actually needed. They teach me that if we want to get anything, we have to put effort into getting it. I have a younger sister too and although I often have to share my food or toys with her, we also share our thoughts when I face difficulties.

I believe I can slowly learn to be an ideal father, and build my own ideal family when I grow up.
