My Ideal Family

My ideal family would never fail to show care and appreciation to each other. This attitude is always presented in my family and we talk to each other when one of us is having problems. We help and protect each other as a complete family.

For me, a perfect family always accepts each member of the family for who they are. A family, to me, will always be there for me and accept my failures and mistakes. My family allows me to form my own opinions but also stands together when we have problems. A perfect family is a family which always bonds together.

I am contented with what has been given to me, even though my family is not perfect. My family is unique in our own way because we accept each other. This is my ideal family.
