

5D Fong Lik Hang      11 October, 2007

Good morning Vice-Principals, teachers and fellow school mates,

I am standing here this morning to share with all you the reasons why we should read.

First, Reading helps us to become an interesting person like how to impress your friends, dates and future in-laws.

The second reason, reading helps us to learn how to write correctly and then get good grades, make our mother happy when she reads your well-written thank-you notes, and impress your future boss who'll promote you because you express yourself so well.

Third, reading develops your imagination. Because of this, we can write nice stories for school, cook up funny ideas for friends, and maybe even earn big bucks writing screen plays for Hollywood!

Forth, Reading entertains you. No more long boring car rides, waits in the dentist's office, or too-long summer holidays when you can't think of anything to do.

Then, reading teaches you about things unfamiliar to you. Write A+ reports for school, impress your friends, and earn big prizes on TV game shows!

Last of all, reading is FUN!

Thank you.