

Good morning principal, vice-principals, teachers and fellow students,

Today, I would like to share with you my opinion towards some incidents happened in Hong Kong these days. Recently, wild boars are found in a village in Stanley. They threaten the safety of the villagers and affect their daily lives.

There're altogether 8 of them, with 2 bigger ones believed to be the parents. They're about 2 metres long and weigh 200 kilos. Smaller ones are still over 1 metre and they've all got canines which make them look even more dangerous and scarier.

However, the most frightening fact is that they actually killed a wild dog which leads villagers to think if they are aggressive to humans too. What's more, the sound of them fighting with dogs at night is a nuisance and makes it quite difficult for villagers to have a good sleep. Now the villagers are forming hunting team on their own and try to kill those wild boars.

Actually, in my opinion, as experts have already proved that they are harmless to people and it is true that no villagers so far is attacked by those boars, so I see no point why we should kill them just for the sake of having peace and quiet. They too, have the right and deserve to live. Now I'm asking everyone to treasure and respect lives, not just humans', but animals' too.

That's the end of my sharing today. Thank you!

Let's bow our heads and pray. In the name of the Father, and of the son, and of the holy spirit, amen.

Lord, help me to take care of this world as You wanted Adam to. Help me to understand that because You took earth and made Adam from it, I am part of creation and I have been given the job of looking after the earth. And God, help me to care for all the creatures of the world and to protect the land You have given us.

Our father in Heaven, Holy be your name. Your Kingdom come. Your will be done on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Do not bring us to the test but deliver us from evil. Amen.

In the name of the Father, and of the son, and of the holy spirit, amen.

People who have a lot of power can get some crazy ideas. They think that because they are the leaders, they don't have to follow the rules anymore. Your rules are the same for everyone, dear Lord, rich and poor. When Nathan told David the story about the rich man stealing the poor man's only lamb, David was mad. At first he did not see that this is just what he had done to Uriah. This is why You had to teach David a serious lesson. Even though You forgave him for his sins, You took away his son. Please help me see that I must never use my power to steal from others, Lord.

Our father in Heaven, Holy be your name. Your Kingdom come. Your will be done on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Do not bring us to the test but deliver us from evil. Amen.
