

Chung Tsz Shun

S7C

9th December, 2008

Good morning principal, vice-principals, teachers and fellow schoolmates. Today I want to ask you a question – “Should we celebrate Christmas if we don't believe in Christ?”

As you are properly aware, Christmas is the festival celebrating the birth of Jesus Christ. From my points of view, a celebration does not have to be religious.

Some may say that non-Christians should not celebrate Christmas. This suggests that Christmas is only about going to church and singing hymns. This is a narrow way of defining the festival. We usually celebrate a joyful day or event.

The true objective of a festival is to bring people together. Love and care are important values, regardless of race , religion and class.

Festivals such as Christmas, provide a perfect opportunity for us to show our warm concern towards others. If the non-Chinese celebrate Lunar New Year, I do not see why they cannot celebrate Christmas. That's the end of my sharing, thank you!