

I would like to start by asking you a question. Do you have a dream? And what is it? If you dream of becoming a professional, you must start doing some foundation works now! Reading is surely is best method to led you success. No matter what things you read, you definitely can acquire extra knowledge in it. For example, you may get some valuable opinions and views given by the editor in reading newspapers, learn different sentence patterns and writing skills in reading books or magazines. If you keep on reading newspaper for a period of time, you will find that you are just holding the same views with the editor. So, you are walking towards your dream near. No thinking but to work. Hope everyone can attain their dreams.