I would like to start by asking you a question. Do you have a dream? And what is it? To be a lawyer, a doctor or other professionals? If you dream of becoming a professional, you must start doing some foundation work now! Reading is surely the best method to achieve success. No matter what materials you read, you definitely can acquire extra knowledge from it. For example, you may get some valuable opinions and views given by the editor in reading newspaper; learn different sentence patterns and writing skills in reading books or magazines. If you keep on reading newspaper for a period of time, you will find that you are just holding the same views with the editor. So, you are walking towards your dream near. Concentrate on our studies. Hope everyone can actualize their dreams.
