

My Favourite Book

Good morning, everyone. Today I would like to talk about my favourite book. It is called Paddington Bear. One of the reasons why I like this book is that the content of the story is touching. At the beginning of the story, Paddington Bear lost his home because of an earthquake. He had to separate from Aunt Lucy. She recommended that he moved to London but she could not accompany him because she was old and her legs were injured and London was too far for her. In my opinion, this is the most touching scene. Aunt Lucy is just concerned about the safety of Paddington Bear, so she persuaded him to leave her and to go to London alone. Aunt Lucy also reminded Paddington Bear about the three rules for living in London. They were 'always say hello', 'talk about the weather', and 'wear a hat'. This is the end of my presentation. Thank you.