

My Favourite Novel

Good morning Principal, Vice-principals, teachers and fellow schoolmates,

Today, I would like to share the book, Zootopia, with you.

It is a story about modern mammal city of Zootopia, which is a melting pot where animals from every environment live together, you can be anything. But when trainee Officer Judy Hopps arrives, she discovers that being the first bunny on a police force of big, tough animals isn't so easy. Determined to prove herself, she jumps at the chance to crack a case, even if it means connecting to a fast-talking, scam-artist fox, Nick Wilde, to solve the mystery.

The story is fascinating with life lessons to get us through our day. Here I want to share a few life lessons I have learnt with you. One of my favourites is, 'Slow and steady still gets the job done'. While some are quick to the chase, others may need a bit more of a reaction time. That doesn't mean someone like Flash can't do the work – they just need a few more minutes ... or hours than the usual animal.

Another lesson I have learned is, 'Try everything'. The message is that even when you fall, you have to get up and try even harder. Zootopia is one of the best feel-good fictions of the year. Don't miss it and you can find it in our library. Enjoy reading! Thank you!
