

My Favourite Novel : Dark Places

Good morning, Principal, Vice-Principals, Teachers and Schoolmates,

I am Joe from 3B. Today I am going to introduce a book to you called “Dark Places”. It is a mystery novel published in 2009. The author of this book is Gillian Flynn.

Libby Day, who is the protagonist and narrator of the book, is my favourite character of all. She survived after the murder of her sisters and mother. She is a witness and later she testifies in court against her brother. Twenty-five years later, Libby in need of money, agrees to revisit the crime scene and works with a group of people who believe her brother is innocent. During the investigation, she found out secrets about her brother.

I highly recommend this book to those who love mysterious things and ratiocination, or the process of exact thinking. Moreover, if you want to know about the ending, make sure to borrow the book from the public library or buy a copy for yourself. Thank you for listening!
