

My Favourite Novel : Life without Limits

Good morning, Principal, Vice-Principal, Teachers and schoolmates,

Today I am going to share with you a book called “Life without Limits”. The writer is Nick Vujicic who was born without arms or legs. Nick overcame his disabilities to live an independent, rich, fulfilling, and “ridiculously good” life while serving as a role model for anyone seeking true happiness. Now an internationally successful motivational speaker, Nick eagerly spreads his message: the most important goal is to find your life’s purpose and to never give up, despite difficulties or the seemingly impossible odds that might stand in your way.

Nick shares how his faith in God has been his major source of strength, and he explains that once he found a sense of purpose—inspiring others to better their lives and the world around them—he found the confidence to build a rewarding and productive life without limits. Let Nick inspire you to start living your own life without limits.

Nick offers practical advice for realizing a life of fulfillment and happiness by building trust in others, developing supportive relationships, and gaining strength for the journey. He encourages the reader by showing how he learned to accept what he could not control and focused instead on what he could.

I remember that my primary teacher showed us the video about Nick, giving a talk in a high school. The content was very meaningful, so I hope that none of you will give up easily but that you will live stronger than before. If you have some free time, you really should read this book and feel the meaning of it. Thank you.
