MY FAVOURITE SPORTS PERSON

6A Pong Hing Man

My favorite
Sportsperson is Conor McGregor. He is one of the most popular fighters in Ultimate Fighting Championship
(UFC).

Connor McGregor is the UFC's brightest star and also the guarantee of UFC box office. He can make hundreds of millions of dollars in a single fight

A lot of people thought he was arrogant, disrespectful to an opponent but he doesn't just talk tough, he punches harder and leaves his opponent speechless.

EARLY LIFE

However, long ago he was a plumber who couldn't even feed himself. He didn't have a happy childhood. Fists and kicks become the only way for his father to educate Connor. His childhood dream was to become a football player but he soon realised he was not cut out for it. Due to his surrounding environment, he learned to fight and abandoned his studies.

Connor was not willing to live out his life like this. He wants to change his way of life.

Then he got a job as a plumber. After a period of time, he found that it was not what he wanted. Since 2008, he has trained at a local boxing gym. He had no income when he first started.

He was overloaded with training every day and then went back to the rental house and starved. In order to eat enough to have strength, he often went to McDonald's, where he picked up other people's leftover fries and hamburgers.

I really like Connor. What people see is only the surface. In fact, I think each of us is a fighter. We are fighting with life. When we get beat up by life, don't bow to it! Pull it up, like Connor. Take it and fight back. Be a tough guy. All of us experience ups and downs in our life. But with perseverance and endurance, we will succeed sometime. I hope all of us will become the champions of our own lives.
